

A fatal accident. A parallel world.
Second chances don't come often.

Death has never been far from Lana. In a previous life, her husband Frank died from a heart condition at thirty. In this new world where she's known as Alannah Walker, it's Tristan by her side as husband, and he had a heart operation as a child. But that's where the similarities end between them.

Born Frank Walters, Tristan hides his past under a new name. His relationship with his wife, Alannah, fraught with anger. Alannah has seemed like a different person since the car accident, and lessons of the past have taught him not to trust too easily.

Will Tristan and Lana learn enough from past mistakes to give them a second chance at love?

Be transported to another world on a breathtaking ride into the unknown, where two lovers will come to find the true meaning of forever. Return to Me is a heart wrenching tale of love, loss, and rediscovery that will draw you in from the very first page.

Return to Me

MAE ARCHER

MAE ARCHER

Return to Me

